

All programs should be captioned on TV. The captioning quality should equal that which would be used if the CEO of the network depended on the captioning to understand the TV show. You need to require and enforce this.